17 On January 9, 2009, this Court imposed conditions of release on the Defendant,
18 Alexander James Trabulse, that includes a restriction of strict home confinement with limited
19 exceptions, including that Mr. Trabulse “may possibly attend mass once a week at discretion of 20 Pretrial Services.” Mr. Trabulse has been attending mass regularly since the imposition of the 21 order, with the approval of his Pretrial Services officer, Richard Sarlatte.

22 Mr. Trabulse would like to attend an additional mass this Saturday, August 15, 2009, in 23 celebration of the high mass of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The mass begins at 24 10:00 AM and will go for approximately two hours. Mr. Trabulse requests that he be permitted
25 to leave his home at 9:30 AM and return home at 12:30 PM to allow for travel time.

26 Pretrial Services has represented that it has no objection to Mr. Trabulse’s proposed attendance of the mass, but that it cannot permit him to attend without an order of this Court because of Mr. Trabulse's conditions of pretrial release. The parties jointly request that the Court permit Mr. Trabulse to attend this mass. The mass will occur at:

St. Margaret Mary Church
1219 Excelsior Drive
Oakland, CA 94601

With this order, Mr. Trabulse may attend the mass specified above notwithstanding the release order in his case that limits his regular church attendance to once per week.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
